SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of 10 years.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime and shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall comply with the standard and special conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below). If this judgment imposes a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall comply with the following additional conditions:

The defendant shall not possess a firearm as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 921.

The defendant shall report in person to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not own, possess or have under his control any firearm, dangerous weapon or other destructive device.

The defendant shall submit to one drug urinalysis within 15 days after being placed on supervision and at least two periodic tests thereafter.

Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 14135a(d)(1) and 10 U.S.C. 1565(d), which requires mandatory DNA testing for federal offenders convicted of felony, the defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, property (real, personal, or rental), residence, office, and/or vehicle, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall register as a sex offender with the Georgia Sexual Offender Registry and with the appropriate law enforcement authority initially in the jurisdiction in which convicted and in the jurisdiction he resides, are employed, or attends school, pursuant to the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act ("SORNA").

The defendant shall participate in the mental health aftercare program including a psychosexual evaluation and counseling if deemed necessary and comply with the conditions of the sex offender contract under the guidance and supervision of the U.S. Probation Officer. If able, the defendant shall be required to contribute to the cost of services for such treatment.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d), the defendant shall submit his person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects, to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of probation or unlawful conduct by the person, and by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions.

The defendant shall permit confiscation and/or disposal of any material considered contraband or any other item which may be deemed to have evidentiary value related to violations of supervision.

2:11-CR-045-01-RWS : FRANT JAMES LASZLO

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

While the defendant is on supervised release pursuant to this judgment, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime. In addition:

1. The defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
  2. The defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
